

Educating the Bilingual Student Conference

“Focusing on Opportunities to Learn”

October 1, 2007

Dear Presenter,

You are cordially invited to submit a Proposal to present at the University of California, Riverside’s 10th Annual Educating the Bilingual Student Conference, being held on Thursday, May 29, 2008 at:

University Extension Conference Center
900 University Avenue
Riverside, CA 92521

This year’s theme is entitled, “Focusing on Opportunities to Learn.” Our morning and afternoon Keynote speakers for the Conference will be announced soon!

The goal of the conference is to provide a theoretical, research-based background in educating English Language Learners and to present effective practices that enhance the Success of all English Language Learners in meeting the California Content Standards and Benchmarks. Our conference is well known to those working in the educational field and students throughout the Inland Empire and surrounding areas. We have received great feedback from our past conferences regarding the workshops they attended.

We invite you to join us by submitting presentations that represent the most current practices for English Language Learners. Enclosed you will find a Presenter Proposal Application Form, and business reply envelope. Please submit this form and return it to us in the enclosed business reply envelope no later than Friday, January 18, 2008.
