

TEACHER RESIDENCY PROGRAM

The Teacher Residency Program offers students a stipend worth up to $32,000 that will be used towards tuition and other related expenses.

Additionally, every participant is guaranteed a student teaching placement within the district, helping them to gain valuable classroom experience and ease their transition into full-time roles.

Finally, after graduation, each student is guaranteed employment in the San Bernardino City USD.

LEARN MORE
education.ucr.edu

Info Sessions

- One year credentialing program coupled with intensive mentoring and financial support
- Candidates commit to teach in the San Bernardino USD after completing the program
- Program lasts 12 months
- Applications are due in January prior to the June start
- Join an Information Session for application information

