

GRADUATE STUDENT ORIENTATION HANDBOOK

2023-2024

Welcome

Welcome to the School of Education (SOE) at the University of California, Riverside!

The SOE offers three degree programs—Doctor of Philosophy, Master of Arts and Master of Education—as well as a teacher credential programs. This Graduate Student Orientation Handbook provides you with the information you'll need for academic success in our programs.

Enrollment Information

Below you will find instructions on how to register for classes from the Registrar's website (<https://registrar.ucr.edu/>). Also included in this section are step-by-step enrollment instructions for R'Web (rweb.ucr.edu).

When to Register

Start registering for classes at your initial enrollment appointment time/time ticket. See the academic calendar to find out when you can view your appointment time via R'Web or view instructions here.

You may register during initial and makeup enrollment. Graduate students may add up to 20 units each quarter without department approval. Requests to enroll in more than 20 units should be directed to your department program coordinator. See the academic calendar for all registration phases.

How to Register

Step 1: Log in to R'Web

Log in to R'Web with your NetID and password.

Need a NetID or forget your NetID/password? When you go to R'Web, select Password Reset. You will answer several security questions and then you will be provided with your NetID and password.

If you have forgotten your student ID, you will need to contact the Office of the Registrar at (951) 827-7284.

Step 2: Resolve Your Holds

If you have outstanding holds, an information box will appear when you first log in to R'Web letting you know right away. This information includes how to resolve your hold. The department initiating the hold must lift it before you can register for classes. You can also go to the "Holds" icon or the Student Profile in R'Web to see all your current holds.

Clear any holds on your account before your registration time-ticketing so that you can register on time. Administrative offices place holds on your account when you fail to:

- Comply with admission requirements
- Settle financial obligations with the university
- Respond to official notices
- Submit requested documents
- Complete the required hepatitis B vaccination

If you have a hold on your account, you may not be able to register for classes, receive financial aid, use campus services, or obtain your transcripts or diploma.

Log in to R'Web to view any holds you may have, their description and who to contact to resolve the hold. You will receive an information box when you first log into R'Web and then you can revisit your active holds by selecting the “Holds” icon.

In most cases, the office that placed the hold is the only one that can release it. If you have questions, we recommend contacting that office directly.

Step 3: Select "Registration"

Once you have selected the “Registration” icon via R'Web, you can select “Prepare for Registration” to determine if your registration status, time ticketing and other requirements are met to allow you to register.

If you are ready to register and your time ticketing time has arrived, select “Register for Classes” and select the appropriate term.

Step 4: Add, Drop, Change or Wait-List for Classes

Add a Class

Use the Find Classes, Enter CRNs, Plans or Blocks tabs to find courses to add to your Summary.

Once you find a course and select ADD, it will show the course in your Summary with a status of “Pending.” To process the request, press SUBMIT.

If a linked discussion or lab section is required, please ensure all linked sections are in your Summary before you click SUBMIT. If there is room in the class, and you meet all requirements, the course status will now read “Registered.”

If the course you have selected is a variable unit course, it will show as only 1 unit when you first submit your enrollment. After you are successfully enrolled in the course, you can use the “Schedule and Options” tab to adjust your variable units accordingly. When it is a variable unit course, the unit amount is a hyperlink. Click on the number and a box will open for you to adjust the units. Once you are done, click SUBMIT at the bottom right to save your change. See detailed instructions here.

Drop a Class

Find the course you want to drop in your Summary area of registration. Select "Drop" from the action dropdown menu. Remember to also drop any linked lab or discussion sections. Select "Submit." The course status should now read "Dropped." You are allowed to drop classes through Friday of the second week of instruction using these steps. After that, it's called "withdrawing" from a class and requires extra steps. See Enrollment Adjustments for details.

Change a Discussion or Lab Section

To change a discussion or a lab section, you will want to add the new section to your Summary, and then select to drop your original section. If you want to ensure your enrolled section will not be dropped unless the requested section can successfully be added, use the Conditional Add and Drop box. The Conditional Add and Drop box ensures that both transactions are successful, or neither will be completed. This ensures that you don't lose your seat in your original section before you know you can successfully gain access to the other section.

Add or Remove Yourself from a Waitlist

Some full courses offer a waitlist option during registration. If so, you will either see a message inviting you to add yourself to the waitlist or the course status will read, "FULL COURSE WAITLIST OPEN- This course is full. A waitlist with (1, 2, 3, 4, etc.) students is available."

Add Yourself to a Waitlist

Select "Waitlist" from the action menu. You will be able to add yourself to the waitlist if you have met all course prerequisites, restrictions, and special approvals. Follow the instructions here. The system will not check for maximum units, linked sections or time conflicts until you have been offered a seat off the waitlist and you officially attempt to add the course. Watch your email to make sure you do not miss your opportunity to enroll!

Remove Yourself from a Waitlist

If you do not want to wait-list for a course any longer, you must take action to remove yourself from it. You can remove yourself from the waitlist by selecting "Drop" from the action menu as it is shown here.

How do I enroll in a class I wait-listed for and got into?

If space becomes available in a class and you are on its waitlist, you will receive an email sent to your R'Mail account stating there is a seat currently reserved for you. You will have 24 hours to respond from the time the email was generated by following the instructions here. Make sure to check your R'Mail!

What should I do if I missed my 24-hour deadline?

A student's deadline to enroll is listed in the email sent to their R'Mail account and is also visible in R'Web. If you missed the 24 hour deadline to enroll off the waitlist and still want to enroll in the class, you must log into R'Web and add yourself to the waitlist for the course again. The seat has automatically been offered to the next student on the waitlist after your deadline passes.

Step 5: Review Your Classes and Exit Securely

Select "Schedule and Options" to view your final class schedule. If you would like to print or email your schedule, you can use the icons at the top right. See more details.

If everything looks all right, exit R'Web, clear your cache (if you are on a public computer) and quit your Web browser.

Independent Study Course Information

The School of Education offers several courses that are considered independent studies. Students enrolling in these courses must have their faculty advisor approval and complete the appropriate petition to enroll, if applicable. To enroll in these courses under their faculty advisor, students must use the perpetual section number assigned to their advisor. For example, students enrolling in EDUC 290 under Dr. Comeaux should enroll using the call number assigned to EDUC 290-C15 listed on the online schedule of classes. All independent courses are listed below.

SOE Faculty Perpetual Section Number

Below is a list of faculty perpetual section numbers for enrolling in EDUC 290, 291, 297, 298I, 299 and 302 courses. When students are ready to add these classes, they should reference the faculty section number to ensure they are adding the correct class.

Note: when adding variable unit classes (EDUC 290, 291, etc.) you will need to take an extra step during the enrollment process to increase the units for the class as R'Web defaults to 1 unit. You can find a step-by-step tutorial on how to adjust variable unit classes in the R'Web tutorials here.

EDUC 290. Directed Studies Course (1-6)

Courses numbered 290 (Directed Studies) are intended to provide an opportunity for qualified students to undertake advanced work in a topic (or topics) appropriate to the student's special interests and needs which are not covered in a regularly offered course on campus or has not or will not be offered in a timely manner prior to graduation.

Students must file no later than the second week of classes a "Petition for Directed Studies 290" which can be found on R'Grad via R'Web. Particular attention is paid to the correlation between the number of units of the 290 course and the amount of substantive academic work assigned. Also, EDUC 290 should not be used if the same work is available in a regularly offered course on campus. Some indication of how much time each week the student will be in consultation with the faculty member should be indicated in a syllabus to be included with the petition to enroll. Students doing directed research or studying for exams should not enroll in EDUC 290, rather, EDUC 297 or EDUC 291 respectively. The course can be taken for 1-6 units and is graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC).

EDUC 291. Individual Studies in Coordinated Areas (1-12)

Students studying for the M.A./Ph.D. written exam, completing an M.Ed. capstone project, or prepping for the Ph.D. oral qualifying exam should enroll in this course under their faculty advisor. When enrolling for this course, it is important to use the correct call number that is associated with the correct faculty member's perpetual section number. Course is repeatable up to 36 units. Graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC).

EDUC 297. Directed Research (1-6) Outside research, 3-18 hours. Prerequisite(s): advanced graduate standing and consent of instructor. Directed research on selected problems in education. This course is to be taken for independent research under the supervision of a faculty member. Graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC).

EDUC 298-I. Individual Internship (1-12) Written work, 1-12 hours; internship, 2-24 hours. Prerequisite(s): Graduate student standing; consent of instructor and graduate advisor. Supervised internship with an approved professional individual or organization based on a written plan approved by the field supervisor and internship coordinator and/or faculty member. Includes two hours per week of direct supervision by the field supervisor. Course is repeatable to a maximum of 16 units. Graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC).

EDUC 299. Research for Thesis or Dissertation (1-12) directed independent studies, 1-6 hours. Prerequisite(s): advancement to candidacy for the master's or doctoral degree. This course should be taken during the quarters in which a student is working on their thesis or dissertation. There is no limit on the total units earned for the course. Course is repeatable. Graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC).

EDUC 302. College Teaching Practicum (1-6)

A minimum of one quarter supervised teaching in college level classes under the supervision of the course instructor. Required of all doctoral candidates in the School of Education. Fulfills teaching portion of Ph.D. requirements. Graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC). May be taken for a maximum of three quarters.

Statement of Purpose

EDUC 302 is a SOE requirement that is designed to give doctoral students college teaching experience before they graduate, to help them prepare for the faculty world they intend to enter. The intent is for students to get a sense of what it is like being "on the other side of the desk." Ideally, this means participating in decisions regarding the syllabus; leading class a time or two either by facilitating discussion and/or delivering a lecture; being involved in grading in conjunction with the faculty of record. Precisely how any of these goals are met is to be determined between the faculty advisor and student.

How Does a Student Find a Course to Teach under EDUC 302?

Most students will likely work with their faculty advisor in a class that the advisor teaches and that is central to the student's field of interest. Where this is not possible, the student and advisor might discuss other classes that the student has taken and determine which of them are most similar to something the student might eventually like to teach. Then the student could, with the advisor's approval, approach the faculty member who teaches that class and inquire about doing a 302 the next time the class is taught. EDUC 302 must be paired with an undergraduate class (EDUC 1-189).

What EDUC 302 is Not:

A student enrolled in EDUC 302 should *not* be teaching the class all on their own, unsupervised by a faculty member. EDUC 302 is not a way to replace a lecturer position, for instance. A student enrolled in EDUC 302 is not a teaching assistant and should not be fulfilling the duties of a TA.

If A Student Already Teaches...

"It is the view of the SOE Graduate Advisory Committee that the EDUC 302 requirement is a meaningful and worthwhile endeavor when undertaken under close direction and supervision from the student's advisor. The purpose of the requirement is not to certify post-secondary teaching experience; rather the purpose is to provide an opportunity for students to work closely with their advisor in the design and implementation of course material in the area that the students will receive their degree. While we recognize the possibility that exceptional cases might merit a waiver, the sentiment of the Committee is that teaching experience at the post-secondary level is not, in and of itself, a legitimate basis for waiving this teaching requirement."

Professor Bob Burns, Chair, Graduate Advisory Committee, December 1, 1994

When Should Students Take EDUC 302?

Advanced doctoral students can take EDUC 302; however, student may take EDUC 302 any time after their first year and before graduation. Students do not need to complete EDUC 302 before completing the written or oral qualifying exams and may be done during the second or third year of coursework, during the exam year, and/or while writing their dissertation.

Grades for EDUC 302

EDUC 302 is graded Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC). Theoretically, an Incomplete (I) can be assigned, but given that the requirement cannot easily be made up after-the-fact or during a break, the way a paper can, a grade of I is not preferable for a student who cannot finish the requirement during the term in which they enrolled in EDUC 302. More likely, if a student cannot finish out the term satisfactorily, the student would withdraw before the deadline for that quarter; if not, the instructor would give a grade of NC and the student would take the course at a later time.

Academic Information

All petitions and forms mentioned in this section are available on R'Grad via R'Web, the SOE website or Graduate Division website. For the most up to date policies, procedures and regulations, check the Graduate Division website.

Full Time Status

Students enrolled in at least 8 units per quarter are considered to be full-time for federal financial aid purposes (FAFSA/loans). However, students receiving financial support through a fellowship or employment (TA, GSR, Associate-In) or are considered international status must be enrolled in at least 12 units per quarter during the academic year (Fall/Winter/Spring) to be considered full time.

SOE Course Attendance Policy

SOE takes seriously the need for students to attend and actively participate in classes. Class absences and lack of participation undermine the learning process. Students who miss more than 20% of the course meetings are strongly encouraged to withdraw from the course. Instructors may also fail such students, except in the case of documented serious illness or immediate family emergency. Missing portions of classes or persistent late arrivals or early departure can count toward the "more than 20%" of class time. Make sure you keep your instructor informed of any issues you may experience in a given quarter.

Writing Policy

The School of Education believes that all students should exit its programs with strong writing skills. As such, the quality of written composition as well as content will be factored into grades on students' papers for all education courses. If you need assistance with writing, you can use the Graduate Writing Center (<http://gwrc.ucr.edu/>). For more information about the Graduate Writing Center, see the "Student Resources" section.

Transferring Course Credit

M.A., M.Ed. and Ph.D. students who plan to transfer course credit that was complete prior to admission (up to 2 classes/8 units) from an outside University, UCR Extension, UCR Concurrent Enrollment or UCR Summer Session, need to obtain approval from their faculty advisor. If the faculty advisor is in agreement that up to 2 classes/8 units are transferrable, then the student must fill out the General Petition from the Graduate Division (<https://graduate.ucr.edu/petitions-and-forms>) and submit it to the Graduate Program Coordinator. An official copy of the transcript with the grade posted must be included with the form unless the Graduate Division already has one. The Graduate Division will make the final decision on whether the course(s) can transfer into the student's program.

Faculty Advisor

All new graduate students are assigned a faculty advisor when they enter the program and must maintain one through the entirety of their program. The faculty advisor helps students create a program plan and works closely with the student on their dissertation, thesis, or other projects (analytical project, case study, etc.). It may be the case that the student and faculty advisor find that they are not a good fit, in terms of research interests or working style. In some instances, an advisor can be changed for students in the program.

Change of Faculty Advisor

If a student feels they should be assigned to a different faculty advisor based on a change in research interests or fit, the student should first discuss the matter with their current faculty advisor. If both parties are in agreement there should be a change, the student may approach the faculty member they wish to be paired with to discuss the option. If both faculty members agree, the student may proceed by filling out a “Request for a Change of Advisors” form, available online at <https://education.ucr.edu/graduate-students> and submit the executed form to the Graduate Program Coordinator. The Graduate Advisor will make the final decision and a letter will be sent confirming the final outcome via email.

In the event the student does not feel comfortable approaching their faculty advisor, they may seek confidential advice from the Graduate Advisor or Graduate Program Coordinator.

Change Area of Specialization

Students who wish to change program areas within the same degree program (e.g. from Educational Psychology to Special Education) must have their files reviewed and recommended for admission by the faculty of the new program area. This is not automatic. If both the new and old area groups are in agreement, the new faculty advisor should notify the Graduate Program Coordinator to update the area of specialization.

Change in Degree Objective

Students who would like to request a change in degree objective from the Ph.D. to M.A./M.Ed. within the same area group need meet with their Faculty Advisor to discuss the transition. If both parties are in agreement, the student needs to submit a “Change in Degree Objective” petition. Note: funding from the Ph.D. program does not transfer to the M.A./M.Ed. program. Students who wish to change their degree objective from M.A./M.Ed. to Ph.D. should refer to the section below.

Entering the Ph.D. Program after Completing the M.A. or M.Ed. Degree

M.A. and M.Ed. students interested in continuing their graduate studies in the doctoral program must apply to the doctoral program and pay the application fee if they wish to be considered for funding/fellowship. The online application is available at <https://education.ucr.edu/phd-admissions>. A new statement of purpose essay, personal history essay, a writing sample, resume/CV, and new letters of recommendation from UCR faculty (one from the M.A./M.Ed. faculty advisor) must be submitted. Students are only admitted to the doctoral program in Fall quarter. If an M.A. or M.Ed. student does not wish to be considered for funding/fellowship, they should check in with the Graduate Program Coordinator for further instruction.

Annual Review

Student progress in the graduate program is evaluated on an annual basis by faculty advisors and/or the area group faculty. Students will be emailed a survey to fill out a self-evaluation to be delivered to their faculty advisor. The self-evaluation helps the faculty advisor construct their review to provide adequate information to the Graduate Division. The faculty advisor annual review becomes a part of the student’s file. Students should take the content of the annual review very seriously and follow any recommendations outlined.

Academic Standing

All graduate students must maintain a 3.0 overall grade point average. Falling below this will result in academic probation for the following quarter when the average must be raised to a 3.0 or higher, or result in academic dismissal. No one is allowed to graduate or continue in a program with an overall grade point average below 3.0 for two or more consecutive quarters. The Graduate Division will notify students via email if they have been academically dismissed, or placed on probation and a registration hold will be placed until next quarter's grades post and return to good standing (3.0 GPA). For more information on satisfactory academic progress, see the Graduate Division website.

Time to Degree

Students must make acceptable progress during their graduate programs; this is called "normative time". M.A. and M.Ed. students are allowed six quarters in which to complete their program. Ph.D. students should graduate in 15 quarters unless otherwise discussed with their faculty advisor. If a student needs more time to complete their degree, they will need to meet with their faculty advisor to fill out a "Timetable to Completion" form and submit it to the Graduate Program Coordinator.

Leave of Absence

Students can be approved for up to one year of leave of absence due to extreme circumstances. Students must submit a request form for a leave of absence to the Graduate Program Coordinator for consideration by the Graduate Advisor and Graduate Division. The "Leave of Absence" form can be found on R'Grad via R'Web.

Filing Fee

You can apply for filing fee status in your last quarter in the program if you have completed all of your coursework and only need to take your M.A. comprehensive exam, file an M.A. thesis, file M.Ed. analytical report/case study or defend and/or file the Ph.D. dissertation. Students who are approved for filing fee status pay approximately $201 for the quarter. Filing fee status is approved for students who are completing an M.A. thesis or Ph.D. dissertation only if the faculty advisor has seen a complete draft of the paper and concurs that it requires only minor edits. Students who do not finish their program requirements at the end of the quarter in which they were on filing fee will resume to full fees the following quarter. In these circumstances, students should reach out to the Graduate Program Coordinator to cancel their current graduation application and apply for the next term. The filing fee form can be found on R'Grad via R'Web.

Withdrawal

Students who are unable to continue in the program are asked to withdraw from the program by completing the "Withdrawal from UCR" petition on R'Grad via R'Web. Students who would like to return to the program at a later date have up to five years to be reinstated in the program. Students who wish to return to the program during this period of time need to apply for readmission and their readmission must be supported by their previous faculty advisor and/or area group.

Transcripts

If a student needs an official transcript from UCR, they can order it through R'Web self-service portal. Unofficial transcripts are also available on R'Web for students to download. Note: these options are only available when there are no holds on your account.

Grades

Students' grades should be available in R'Web a week after the end of the quarter for winter and spring, and the beginning of January for fall quarter. If a student has any questions concerning their grades, the first step is to check with the instructor. For specific grade deadlines, please refer to the academic calendar on the Registrar's site.

Satisfactory (S) or No Credit (NC) (also known as Pass/Fail)

Students may not take a course in their major (Education) on an S/NC grading basis unless the course is graded that way. If a course is originally graded S/NC, students must have a grade of "B" or better in order to get a Satisfactory (S) grade. If a student wishes to change the grading basis of a non-Education or major required course to S/NC, they must check to see if the course has the option. Contact the Graduate Program Coordinator for further assistance.

Incomplete Grades

If a student has a compelling reason, instructors may grant an incomplete ("I") grade if they are unable to complete a course. Students should not assume that an instructor will allow them to take an incomplete as they are not obligated to do so. The student has one quarter to make up the work and be assigned an appropriate grade. Note: the instructor may assign an earlier deadline than the next quarter to complete the requirements of the incomplete. It is recommended that students submit make-up work at least two weeks before the deadline date to provide the instructor time to read the material and submit a grade change form. Missing the deadline means the system will automatically assign an "F" grade on your transcript. If you cannot complete the work in one quarter, you must request an extension to complete the coursework and seek the instructor's approval. The form can be found on the Graduate Division forms website. Once complete, send the signed form to the Graduate Program Coordinator.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

The following except has been taken from the Graduate Division website. For the most up to date regulations, please refer to: https://graduate.ucr.edu/regulations-and-procedures#unsatisfactory\_progress

Regulations:

- Graduate students are expected to make satisfactory progress toward an approved academic objective, as defined by the faculty of their program in accordance with the policies of the Graduate Council and to maintain a satisfactory grade point average for all work undertaken while enrolled as a graduate student.
- Satisfactory progress is determined on the basis of both the recent academic record and overall performance.
- Normally graduate students are expected to enroll for at least twelve units (unless on an approved leave or on Filing Fee Status), and satisfy all requirements of the academic program according to an approved schedule.

- A graduate student who has not demonstrated satisfactory progress is not eligible for any academic appointment, such as Reader, Graduate Student Researcher, or Teaching Assistant, and may not hold a fellowship or other award that is based upon academic merit.
- The general criteria for making a determination of unsatisfactory progress include:
  - An overall grade point average below 3.0 or a grade point average below 3.0 in two successive quarters.
  - Failure to complete required courses successfully and/or examinations satisfactorily, within the period specified by the graduate program.
  - Failure to pass a required examination in two attempts.
  - Failure to make adequate progress toward the completion of the thesis or dissertation.
  - Failure to pass qualifying exams within five years.
  - Failure to complete their program within one year after reaching normative time.
  - Failure to make progress in research for two consecutive quarters.
  - Twelve or more units of "I" grades outstanding.
- Unsatisfactory academic progress may be determined on the basis of explicit requirements, but the professional judgment of the faculty upon review of all graduate work undertaken by the student is paramount.
- The intention of notices of unsatisfactory progress is to provide students with a period of time (usually at least one quarter) in which to make the necessary improvement in their academic status, and to make progress on successfully completing their graduate study.
- Any recommendation to terminate the student's status is subject to the approval of the Graduate Dean.

Procedure for Notifying Student of Unsatisfactory Progress:

1. If a student is not making acceptable progress, it is important that they be notified of this as early as possible.
2. All such notices should be in writing to the student, with a copy retained in the academic unit files and a copy sent to the Graduate Dean.

Action Taken by Graduate Division:

1. The Graduate Dean normally sends a notice of unsatisfactory progress to students experiencing scholastic difficulties or taking overly long to complete their degree requirements.
  2. If the Graduate Advisor is of the opinion that there are extenuating circumstances, which warrant an exception being made for an individual student, or if the student shows significant improvement in their academic record, the Advisor may make a written recommendation to the Dean of the Graduate Division to permit the student to continue with scholastic deficiencies.
- If in the ensuing quarter(s) it is the Graduate Advisor's opinion that improvement in the record is unlikely, or that the student is unable to meet the requirements for a degree, then the Graduate Advisor should encourage the student to withdraw from the University rather than face possible disqualification.

Academic Milestones and Requirements

M.Ed. Case Study

Students in the M.Ed. program with an emphasis in Special Education will generate a case study in their final quarter. Students will develop an intervention and a plan for implementation and assessment. Upon completion and faculty advisor approval, students will fill out and sign the “Analytical Report/Case Study Completion Form” found on the SOE website and submit a copy of the case study to the Graduate Program Coordinator by the graduation deadline for the term in which they are finishing as listed on the Graduate Division website.

M.Ed. Analytical Report

Students in the M.Ed. program with an emphasis in Diversity and Equity, Education Policy Analysis and Leadership, and Higher Education Administration and Policy will complete an analytical report as their final requirement. Students will work with their faculty advisor to go over the requirements and rubric for the analytical report. Upon completion with faculty advisor approval, students will fill out and sign the “Analytical Report/Case Study Completion Form” found on the SOE website and submit a copy of the report to the Graduate Program Coordinator by the graduation deadline for the term in which they are finishing as listed on the Graduate Division website.

M.A. Thesis

Students in the M.A. program with an emphasis in Education, Society and Culture, Educational Psychology, and Special Education and Autism may opt to complete the thesis instead of the written comprehensive exam. Students enrolled in the Neuroscience and Education must complete a thesis and do not have an alternative option. The thesis topic and project are supervised by the faculty advisor, and should be worked on after completing all required coursework. Only Ph.D. School Psychology students earning an M.A. are required to conduct a thesis defense, unless requested by the faculty advisor/thesis chairperson in the other specializations (Educational Psychology, etc.). Note: students in the Ph.D. program who wish to complete the M.A. requirements along the way must complete the thesis option; cannot substitute Ph.D. written qualifying exam or take M.A. written exam to fulfill M.A. degree requirements.

M.A. Written Comprehensive Exam

Students in the M.A. program with an emphasis in Research, Evaluation, Measurement and Statistics are required to complete the written comprehensive exam. All other M.A. programs (except Neuroscience and Education) have the option to complete the written exam or thesis. Students who choose the thesis option do not also take the comprehensive exam. The exam is taken after all required coursework is complete. Students should work with their faculty advisor to verify all course requirements are met before submitting their intent to sit for the exam to the Graduate Program Coordinator. Students are allowed two attempts to pass the exam and will work with their faculty advisor to adequately prepare. If both attempts are failed, the student is dismissed from the program. The exam is take-home format and dates are pre-set at the beginning of the academic year, which typically occur during week 8 of the quarter.

Ph.D. Written Qualifying Exam

All Ph.D. students are required to take the written qualifying exam after all the required coursework is complete. Students should meet with their faculty advisor before the quarter they plan to take their exam to discuss exam content and verify all course requirements are met before submitting their intent to sit for the exam to the Graduate Program Coordinator. Students are allowed two attempts to pass the exam and will work with faculty advisor to adequately prepare. If both attempts are failed, the student is dismissed from the program. The exam is take-home format and dates are pre-set at the beginning of the academic year, which typically occur during week 8 of the quarter.

Ph.D. Oral Qualifying Exam

After successfully passing all sections of the Ph.D. written qualifying exam, doctoral students work with their faculty advisor to prepare their prospectus (pre-proposal) and form an oral exam committee consisting of five UC faculty members. Regulations on the committee membership can be found here. Once the committee is nominated by filling out the form on R'Grad, the student can set a date to conduct their oral exam. Students have two opportunities to pass the oral exam. If both attempts are failed, the student is dismissed from the program.

Ph.D. Dissertation Proposal

After passing the oral qualifying exam, students will work with their dissertation committee consisting of three UC faculty members to finalize their dissertation proposal. Regulations on the committee membership can be found here. All dissertation committee members must approve the dissertation proposal. The dissertation chair should email the Graduate Program Coordinator confirming the dissertation proposal has been approved to check off the milestone on the student's degree audit.

Ph.D. Dissertation

All Ph.D. students complete a dissertation after passing their oral qualifying exam and obtaining IRB approval, if applicable. Students will work closely with their dissertation chairperson to conduct their research project and write the dissertation. Graduate Division requires all dissertations are submitted for a format review at least two weeks prior to the end of the quarter they are graduating, and the final draft should be submitted by the posted deadline for graduation.

Ph.D. Final Defense

Every Ph.D. student must complete a final defense, which is open to the public. To schedule the exam, send the Graduate Program Coordinator a copy of your abstract and title for an email announcement about your final defense at least two weeks prior to the defense date. If you do not provide this information, a general email will be sent to the SOE community with the date and time of your final defense.

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity Guidelines

(Taken from Academic Senate Policies: <https://senate.ucr.edu/>) See the Academic Senate website for the most current academic integrity policy, procedures regulations, and bylaws.

“At the University of California, Riverside (UCR) honesty and integrity are fundamental values that guide and inform us as individuals and as a community. The culture of academia requires that each student take responsibility for learning and for products that reflect their intellectual potential, curiosity, and capability. Students must represent themselves truthfully, claim only work that is their own, acknowledge their use of others' words, research results, and ideas, using the methods accepted by the appropriate academic disciplines and engage honestly in all academic assignments. Anything less than total commitment to honesty circumvents the contract for intellectual enrichment that students have with the University to become and educated person, undermines the efforts of the entire academic community, and diminishes the value of an education for everyone, especially for the person who cheats. Both students and faculty are responsible for ensuring the academic integrity of the University.”

Cheating

Examples include but are not limited to:

- copying from another student's examination, quiz, laboratory work, or homework assignment
- possession or use of pre-prepared notes or other resources, during an examination
- allowing others to conduct research or to prepare work for you
- submitting for academic advancement an item of academic work that you have previously submitted for academic advancement

Plagiarism

Includes the copying of language, structure, or ideas of another and attributing (explicitly or implicitly) the work to one's own efforts. Plagiarism means using another's work without giving credit. Examples include but are not limited to:

- copying information from computer-based sources, i.e., the Internet
- allowing another person to substantially alter or revise your work and submitting it entirely as your own

Unauthorized Collaboration

Examples include but are not limited to:

- working with other students to do work, review books, or develop a presentation or report without permission or direction from the instructor to do so
- making information available to a student who did not attend the class
- submitting a group assignment, or allowing that assignment to be submitted, representing the project is the work of all of the members of the group when less than all of the group members assisted substantially in its preparation

Facilitating Academic Dishonesty

Examples include but are not limited to:

- intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another student to commit an act of academic misconduct

- permitting your academic work to be represented as the work of another
- signing in or substituting for another student in order to meet an academic requirement
- providing specific information about a recently given test, examination, or assignment to a
- student who thereby gains an unfair advantage in an academic evaluation

Interference or Sabotage

Examples include but are not limited to:

- destroying, stealing, changing, or damaging another's lab experiment, computer program, term paper, exam, or project

Fabrication

Examples include but are not limited to:

- falsifying the results of any academic work or fabricating any data or information
- falsifying, altering, or misstating the contents of documents or other materials related to academic matters

Failure to Comply with Research Regulations: Failure to comply with research regulations such as those applying to human subjects, laboratory animals, and standards of safety

Retaliation: Retaliation of any kind against a person who reported or provided information about suspected or alleged misconduct and who has not acted in bad faith.

Academic Misconduct Procedures

If a faculty member, teaching assistant, or other instructional personnel suspects an act of academic misconduct has occurred in a course, s/he must communicate with the student regarding the alleged act of misconduct and the information upon which the allegation is based within 30 business days of the alleged act.

Taking Responsibility

If you do not dispute the facts upon which the charges are based (admit responsibility), Student Conduct & Academic Integrity Programs will follow up with you in writing to formally advise student of the academic sanctions assigned by the instructor as well as appropriate disciplinary sanctions assigned by the University.

Disputing Responsibility

If you dispute the facts upon which the charges are based (deny responsibility), Student Conduct & Academic Integrity Programs (SCAIP) will conduct an Administrative Review to determine responsibility. You will be notified of the policy allegedly violated; the factual basis for the charges; and asked to schedule a meeting with a conduct officer. If it is determined that more likely than not you are responsible for academic misconduct, you will be given academic sanctions recommended by the faculty member as well as appropriate disciplinary sanctions assigned by the University. Grades are usually delayed by the instructor pending the final outcome of an Administrative or Committee Review. NOTE: When allegations are deemed to be egregious or you have been previously found in violation of academic misconduct, the case is referred to the Academic Integrity Committee in the instructor's College, for a review.

Student Conduct Records

A conduct file is retained in SCAIP for seven (7) years from the date the incident is resolved. Student conduct records may be released only to the student, other UCR officials who have a legitimate need to know, and others permitted by law. Students must sign a Student Conduct Records Release Authorization Form if s/he wishes to allow access by any other person(s) to information in their file. The form can be found at: <https://conduct.ucr.edu/>

Student Responsibility

Students are expected to respond to directives from SCAIP and/or the College Academic Integrity Committees. A student may bring any information and/or documentation that pertain to the alleged violation, including witnesses. ## Fees, Financial Aid, and Fellowships

Fees

Fee deadlines are set by the Cashier's office and can be paid online by credit card or in-person at the Cashier's office. Keep in mind that graduate students who do not pay fees by Friday of the second week of classes will be assessed a $50 late fee. Students may only re-enroll once all outstanding fees are paid and all holds are cleared. Remember, the Cashier's Office payments must be received by 3:00 pm, and R'Web and drop box payments at Student Services are due by 4:00 pm.

Fees information is available at: <https://registrar.ucr.edu/tuition-fees>

Deferred Payment Plan

This plan allows students to pay fees in three monthly installments and can sign up on R'Web. If you have any questions, contact the Main Cashier's Office located at the Student Services Building, Room 1111 or call (951) 827-3208.

Half-Time and Reduced Fee Status

Students who are working full time or have a serious health related matter preventing them from being enrolled full time may request to be on half-time status. This means students may only be enrolled in 1-6 units in the quarter or quarters they are enrolled half-time. The form can be found on R'Grad via R'Web and should be submitted on September 1st for Fall, December 1st for Winter, and March 1st for Spring terms.

Health Insurance Waiver

If a student has their own health insurance, they may file for an exemption for the health fee (GSHIP or Graduate Student Health Insurance Program) through the Health Center. If a student has insurance and does not plan to use UCRs, they should not pay the fee as it is non-refundable. Students must be enrolled in courses before the GSHIP fees will be waived and credited to the account. Waivers are usually good for one academic year as long as there is no break in enrollment and must be renewed each summer. For more information, call the Health Center at (951) 827-3031, health@ucr.edu, or visit their site.

Financial Aid

Financial aid disbursements vary depending on the financial aid (grants, loans, UCR scholarships, outside scholarships and Federal Work-Study) students receive. Students must be enrolled in courses for the disbursement to take effect. The FAFSA also has to be filed and submitted prior to the deadline, including health insurance fee waivers. For more information about financial aid, email the department at finaid@ucr.edu, call 951-827-3878 or visit their site.

Employment in SOE

Eligible graduate students who are hired as an Associate-In, Teaching Assistant or Graduate Student Researcher at 25-50% are provided a monthly paycheck for the term(s) employed, and all tuition and health insurance fees will be paid with the exception of course material fees and technology fee. Any questions relating to employment and funding should be discussed with the Graduate Program Coordinator and faculty advisor.

For information on employment policies and regulations, please refer to the Graduate Division website: <https://graduate.ucr.edu/graduate-student-employment>

Fellowships

Upon admission, Ph.D. students may have been offered a fellowship package. To best explain how to read and understand a fellowship package, please see the chart below as a reference.

Total Value of Award = $121,510.04

Student Funding Support (Stipend)

In the award summary above, there is a column for “Student Funding Support” on the far left. This represents a stipend, which is disbursed in its entirety at the beginning of the quarter and will be used to pay any outstanding fees on the student account. For example, there is a $5 per unit technology fee that all students are responsible for paying. The stipend will cover this charge each quarter, and the residual will be disbursed to the student. Note: stipends are not taxed on the front end for domestic students but are to be reported in the following tax year. Conversely, international student’s stipends are taxed on the front end, and the tax rate is determined through the GLACIER form.

Employment Salary

When a student accepts a fellowship with funding that includes employment salary, it is the expectation that the student will be available during daytime hours to fulfill the obligations of a teaching assistant (TA) or graduate student researcher (GSR). In the award summary there is the following note:

<sup>2</sup>Dependent upon departmental needs, titles and pay rates of academic appointments may vary from year to year, and are governed by the applicable collective bargaining agreement(s). However, the total value of your award would not be less than indicated. University employment indicated on the chart is contingent on maintaining all eligibility requirements for employment in the U.S.

<sup>3</sup>Fees may be paid through a fellowship or by an academic appointment of TA (Teaching Assistantship) or GSR (Graduate Student Researcher) at a minimum appointment of 25%. Those fees include the Graduate Student Health Insurance Plan (GSHIP). Fees NOT included are the optional $7/annual UC Grad and Prof Assoc Fee and the one-time $165 Single Document Fee. If you apply and are approved for a health insurance waiver, this amount is deducted from the overall value of the award and not provided to you as any other financial benefit. Should you decline the academic appointment there is no guarantee that your fees will be paid from another source. Please check with your graduate program to determine which fees are covered by academic appointment prior to declining any appointment.

If a student declines the TA/GSR appointment in any given quarter for the academic year it is promised, the SOE will not cover the corresponding fees listed in the “Fees Paid by Award (includes GSHIP)” column and the student will not be paid the values under the “Employment salary” column.

Depending on the student’s position as a TA or GSR, the hours per week will not change, rather, the time of day in which they are required to report for work will vary. For example, each quarter the undergraduate EDUC classes are offered any time Monday through Friday 8am to 10pm. The lecture and discussion sections will be different in each quarter throughout the academic year, and it is required that the TA is present for the lecture as well as their assigned discussion section(s). The SOE does their best to ensure TA hours do not overlap with the student’s academic schedule. GSR hours are to be set by the faculty advisor/PI for whom they are working for and will vary by the faculty member needs.

For more information on employment, please see the Graduate Division website:
<https://graduate.ucr.edu/graduate-student-employment>.

Misc. Campus Fees to be paid by Student

If there are fees listed in this column, the student is responsible for paying that amount by the fee deadline. Note: if there is a stipend in the same year, the funds from the stipend will apply to the fees to be paid by the student. The stipend will be applied toward the fees owed and the student will owe the residual. Conversely, when a student has fees owed, but they have a TA/GSR position, as in the 2nd year (2024-2025) in the chart listed above, the salary from the employment will not apply towards the misc. fees owed. In this case, the student will need to pay the misc. fees by the fee deadline, and then they will receive a monthly paycheck for the TA/GSR position after the first month of employment. All current fee activity is available on R’Web, which is updated each night, so for the most recent activity, students should check their account.

If a student has questions about their financial chart, employment or fees due, they should contact the Graduate Program Coordinator for assistance.

Riverside Underground Scholars

<https://diversity.ucr.edu/underground-scholars-initiative>

Riverside Underground Scholars (RUS) is an academic support program for incarcerated, formerly incarcerated, and system-impacted students. In addition, it creates a pathway for incarcerated, formerly incarcerated, and system-impacted individuals into higher education by building a prison-to-school pipeline through recruitment, retention, and advocacy.

We directly challenge the stigmas associated with our community. The program cultivates a sense of belonging and a healthy community for formerly incarcerated and system-impacted students to thrive at UCR.

While we prioritize our services for formerly incarcerated students, we are aware of the impact the incarcerated system has on family, friends, and the community. As such, we fully support and welcome system-impacted members. We define system impacted as those with arrests/convictions but no incarceration and those who have been directly affected by a loved one being incarcerated. Indeed, our partners, parents, children, and/or siblings often face the most significant disadvantages behind the absence of incarcerated loved ones. Thus, this categorically merits the designation of system-impacted.

Appeal Procedures

The SOE is dedicated to student success and addressing any concerns that may arise on the way to program completion. Below is a summary of appeal procedures.

- First, students should speak with the faculty member/instructor with whom they have a problem (advising, general concern, course dispute, etc.).
- Second, if the issue is not with their faculty advisor, the student should consult with them on the matter.
- Third, if the student does not feel their question has been answered or the concern resolved, the student can make an individual appointment with the Associate Dean for Graduate Education for the School of Education, Dr. Eddie Comeaux (eddie.comeaux@ucr.edu).
- Fourth, if the student does not feel that the question has been answered or the concern resolved after speaking with the Associate Dean for Graduate Education, the student may make an individual appointment with the Dean of the School of Education (soedean@ucr.edu).
- Fifth, if the student does not feel that the question has been answered or the concern resolved after speaking with the Dean, the student may make an individual appointment with the University Office of the Ombudsman. Please note that students may, at any time, consult with the University Office of the Ombudsman.
- Sixth, if the student does not feel that the question has been answered or the concern resolved at the department level, they may file an appeal with the Graduate Division. Procedures for this are outlined on the Graduate Division website under “Graduate Academic Affairs Regulations and Procedures.” If the matter is not related to grade disputes, students may contact the Vice Provost for Administrative Resolution.

If you have any questions about the above outlined procedures, please contact Dr. Eddie Comeaux.

Graduate Appeals Procedures – Programs (SOE)

1. Purpose and Scope: This procedure enables current and former graduate students to appeal academic decisions including outcomes of comprehensive and qualifying exams. Applicants denied admission to the Program (SOE) may not use this procedure and instead will be referred to the admissions office of the Graduate Division. This procedure excludes complaints regarding grades, academic integrity and discipline, accommodations for disabilities, employment, benefits, auxiliary student services (such as housing and child care) and whistleblower complaints. This procedure may be used to address complaints regarding violations of campus non-discrimination policies, pursuant to 4.e.3 below, to the extent that a documented discriminatory act has affected a student’s academic progress (for details, see “Dispute Resolution” section here ).
  - a. Any appeal based on sex discrimination or sexual harassment must be referred directly to the Title IX office for initial review. If the appeal remains active after the - conclusion of the Title IX investigation then the appeal will be governed under the procedures described in the campus-wide Graduate Appeal Procedure.

- b. Grade disputes must be appealed under the Academic Senate Bylaw R5, Procedures for the Appeal of Grades.
  - c. For academic integrity disputes involving graduate students, see the Academic Senate Bylaw 6.
  - d. For disputes involving graduate student academic employment, see the “Employment Issues” of the “Dispute Resolution” section here.
  - e. For disputes regarding disability accommodations, inquire with the Services for Student with Disabilities \(SSD\) Administrative Office.
  - f. For disputes regarding whistleblower complaints, including complaints for retaliation, see the University of California Whistleblower policy.
  - g. For all other non-academic issues, the student may be referred to the campus Ombudsman and/or the Office of Administrative Resolution.
2. Access to Academic Records and to Evaluation Review: Pursuant to FERPA requirements, students are entitled to timely access to academic records stored in their academic file. In addition to access to their academic records, students may request that the relevant faculty members review qualifying examination or other evaluation outcomes with them, if such review was not provided as part of the exam or evaluation process.
  3. Informal and Formal Resolution: As a first step in an appeals procedure, students are strongly encouraged to pursue informal resolution of disputes over academic decisions before resorting to a formal appeal. Informal resolution involves further oral communication among the affected parties (e.g., a student and the chair of his/her exam committee), perhaps in the presence of a third party if desired. Absent an informal resolution, a formal complaint must be initiated in writing.
    - a. Students should first meet with the individual(s) in which they are experiencing a conflict or expressed concern. If the student wishes, they may arrange for the Associate Dean to join the meeting. Alternatively, students may request to only meet with the Associate Dean to discuss the matter.
  4. Formal Appeal Initiation: The formal appeals procedure defines what constitutes a valid appeal.
    - a. Only current, returning and former graduate students and faculty members in the Program may use this procedure. A student may bring a complaint individually or may file a complaint jointly with other students when each claims injury as a result of the same alleged action(s).
    - b. The formal appeal should be addressed in writing to the Graduate Advisor. Alternatively, the appeal may be addressed to the Department Chair or Program Director or Associate Dean. The appeal must be addressed to one of these Program officers.
    - c. The appeal must include a written statement that lays out the grounds for the appeal, and any supporting documentation.
    - d. The appeal must be initiated within 30 calendar days from the day the student knew or reasonably should have known about the action generating the complaint, excluding campus holidays, intersession periods, and summer session.
    - e. The valid grounds on which a student may base an appeal are confined to three areas: (1) evidence of procedural error committed intentionally or inadvertently by the Program faculty or staff and/or (2) evidence of non-academic criteria being used to evaluate academic work, including personal bias and violations of the campus nondiscrimination policy and/or (3) special mitigating circumstances beyond the student's control (such as documented severe illness to self or immediate family, or death in the family) not properly taken into account in a decision affecting the student's academic progress. In order to seek relief under 4.e(3), "special mitigating circumstances," the student must have raised the issue with the program contemporaneous with the mitigating circumstances, or as soon as possible and no later. For example, if a documented medical condition impairs the student's ability to pass an exam, the student must notify the exam committee prior to the exam's administration.

5. Investigation and Record Keeping:

- a. The Graduate Advisor (or Associate Dean) shall determine the validity of an appeal with respect to whether it meets the criteria set out in 4.a.-e. or whether additional material should be provided by appellant in order to make that determination under 4.c. Also, the Graduate Advisor (or Associate Dean) shall forward a copy of the complaint to the individual(s) complained of and ask them to provide written responses within twenty (20) days of receipt. Should the Graduate Advisor (or Associate Dean) have a conflict of interest, the determination of validity shall be made by the Department Chair or his/her designate in the case that the Department Chair also has a conflict of interest. The appellant shall be notified as to the determination as to validity within thirty (30) days of the submission of an appeal. Failure of the Graduate Advisor or Department Chair or his/her designate to identify to appellant the outcome as to the validity of the appeal within thirty (30) days shall result in referral of the appeal directly to the Graduate Division.
- b. The Graduate Division will be notified as to who determines the validity of appeals both as a matter of course and in instances where substitutions are necessary to avoid conflicts of interest.
- c. Appeals procedures will be published in the Graduate Student Handbook and on the Program's website.
- d. A panel of faculty appointed by the Graduate Advisor (such as the program's graduate committee) will serve as the Faculty Hearing Panel (the "Panel"). Only faculty who were not involved in making the decision under appeal may sit on this panel. The Panel will make a decision on the merits of the appeal as well as a remedy, if any.
  - (1) The Graduate Advisor/Associate Dean or Dean will appoint two faculty members not involved in the appeal to an ad hoc committee. The purpose of the ad hoc committee is to review evidence and provide a recommendation to the Dean and Graduate Advisor of the SOE on the merits of the appeal. The individuals listed in the student appeal should be provided a copy of the formal appeal and will have 14 days to provide a written response. In the case of a dismissal appeal, the student will remain in active status until the conclusion of the department appeal.
- e. The Panel will review the written complaint, response from the individual(s) complained of, and submitted materials; afford the opportunity for the affected parties to meet separately with the Panel; and make any appropriate efforts to interview witnesses or other parties and discover information relevant to the decisions.
- f. The Panel may not change an exam result, though it may be allowed to deem the result invalid.

- g. The Panel will make a decision and notify the appellant of the outcome within 60 days of the initiation of the formal complaint. If determination is not made within the 60-day timeframe, the appeal is deemed denied. Further, if determination by the Panel is not made within the 60-day timeframe, the matter is automatically referred to Graduate Division.
  - (1) Within the SOE: the ad hoc committee will provide a final report no later than 50 days of the initial formal complaint to the Dean and Graduate Advisor/Associate Dean. The Graduate Advisor/Associate Dean and/or Dean will write a decision letter to the student and Graduate Division Dean within the 60-day timeframe. The letter will include a summary of the findings by the two-person faculty ad hoc committee and recommendations for next steps. Upon request, only the student and Graduate Division will receive a copy of the ad hoc committee report.
- h. When a determination as to validity has not been determined within the 30-day timeframe or where a determination as to the merits/remedy have not been determined within the 60-day timeframe, or if the appellant is notified after the 30-day or 60-day timeframes identified above, the outcome will be forwarded to Graduate Division as part of the file.
- i. A written summary of the appeal and the conclusions reached will be kept in the student's academic file. If the appeal is supported, Graduate Division will ensure that prompt corrective action is taken.
- 6. Notice to Parties: The appellant and any parties complained of will be promptly informed in writing of the outcome of the appeal and any corrective action taken.
- 7. Appeal Procedure: All affected parties have the opportunity to appeal determinations by the Graduate Advisor/Department Chair or his/her designee as to validity of an appeal or determinations by the Panel as to the merits of the appeal and any remedy to the Graduate Dean. For more information, visit the Dispute Resolution page.
- 8. Time frames: All time frames are defined in terms of calendar days, excluding campus holidays, inter-session, and summer session, starting on the day the student either knew or reasonably should have known of the actions leading to the complaint.
- 9. Standards of Review:
  - a. Program level: The standard of review to be employed by the Panel shall be the "clearly erroneous" standard. Under the clearly erroneous standard, academic outcomes will not be disturbed unless the Panel is left with a "definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed" by the instructor(s).
  - b. Graduate Division level: The standard of review to be employed by the Graduate Dean shall be under an "arbitrary and capricious" standard as to determinations of the Panel and under the "abuse of discretion" standard as to determinations regarding validity of an appeal. Under the arbitrary and capricious standard, academic outcomes will not be disturbed unless the Graduate Dean determines that a previous determination is invalid because it was made on unreasonable grounds or without any proper consideration of circumstances. Determinations regarding appeal validity will not be reversed unless The Graduate Dean determines that there was no reasonable basis at all for the decision. Any valid pertinent reason stated will be sufficient to uphold the validity determination.
