

Application Flow Chart and Timeline

Application Flow

Timeline

PhD applications: all applications are reviewed as a group after December 15th. Final selections are made in February and admission offers with fellowship are generally sent to applicants via email by the end of March.

MA/MED applications: reviewed by faculty as they are complete. Graduate Admissions prioritizes PhD applications December through March. Submissions after March take approximately 6-8 weeks after they are routed for faculty admission review. Final admission decisions are sent to the applicant via email.
