Work Study

Federal Work Study provides part-time jobs for undergraduate and graduate students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay education expenses.

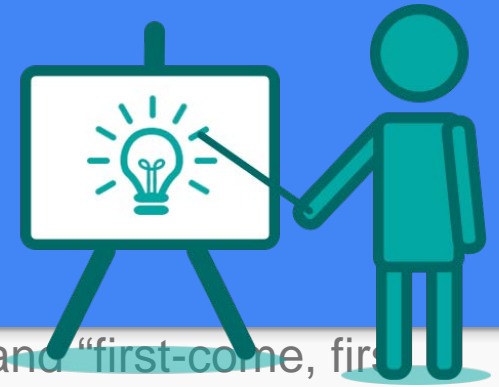

- Find jobs at <https://app.joinhandshake.com/>
- Attend work study workshops

Talent, meet opportunity.

Helping all students find meaningful careers.

R'Success Series

R'Success Workshops are scheduled on a drop-in basis and “first-come, first-served.” The workshop series covers a variety of study and life skills topics with each workshop offered several times each quarter

- Receive a stamp for each session you attend (some workshops are worth two (2) stamps); 10 stamps earn you a certificate of completion, an invitation to the Academic Resource Center recognition event held in May.
- Many workshops will be covered in the freshman seminars and transfer student seminars

  - GSOE will be recruiting ambassadors in the fall
  - Cultural, academic, the Well, ARC, undergraduate admissions, housing, etc.
  - Contact departments you're interested in!
- Mentorship Programs
  - Peer mentorship hiring for 2019
    - May require completion of the Student Life Leadership Certificate
  - Cultural mentorship programs
- Orientation Leaders (for new student orientation)
  - Hiring begins every winter

Student Life Leadership Certificate

Starting Fall 2018

- All leadership programs including the Inspiring R' Leaders Conference and the Cultural Awareness Project count toward the completion of the certificate.
  - R' Leaders Conference - a one-day conference that provides opportunities for UCR students to evaluate and recognize their leadership skills and abilities. Approximately 20 workshops will be offered within various themes ranging from communication, diversity and social justice, leadership assessments, self-awareness and identity development.
  - Cultural Awareness Project (CAP) - a four-week program with a two-hour workshop each week. Each workshop addresses different topics to build your cultural competence.
    - You will learn how to collaborate with people from different cultures and backgrounds, how to help ALL students feel welcome on campus, and how your own identity shapes your experience.
