B.A. in Education, Society, and Human Development
Degree Breadth Requirements Worksheet

Program Curriculum (Breadth)

Undergraduates in the Graduate School of Education must complete breadth requirements as determined by the Executive Committee of the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (CHASS). For a list of quarterly approved courses, refer to the CHASS Student Academic Affairs "Breadth Requirements Course List": http://chassstudentaffairs.ucr.edu/breadth_requirements/index.html.

For a placement test examination appointment in Mathematics and Foreign Language, visit: http://placementtest.ucr.edu.

No course may be applied to more than one breadth requirement with the exception of the course taken to meet the Ethnicity requirement and the course taken to meet the ENGL 001C/Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) requirement. Ethnic Studies courses may be used to fulfill EITHER an additional social science OR additional humanities based on course content. WAC courses may fulfill the ENGL 001C requirement as well as the normal area of breadth that the non-WAC version of the course would fulfill. See General Catalog.

Courses offered by or cross-listed with Business Administration, Education, and Physical Education may not be used to satisfy breadth requirements. Choose breadth courses in consultation with your Academic Advisor (visit for the most updated advisor information: https://education.ucr.edu/undergraduate-education-students).
