Catalog 2020:

The Athletic Leadership Minor is suitable for students who are considering leadership careers in a variety of athletic settings, particularly at the intercollegiate level.

The minor will enhance content knowledge and leadership skills in the program as well as advance the understanding of the role athletics leaders play in the larger campus environment. Students in the minor will prepare for career success in a variety of areas that include, but are not limited to: sport administration (scholastic, collegiate, and professional), sport management, coaching, community and youth sports, fitness clubs and wellness organizations, and parks and recreation leader.

One (1) lower division course will provide foundational knowledge in the main content areas of the minor program. In addition, students will take at a minimum of four (4) upper division courses related to theories of student development, critical pedagogy, diversity issues, policies, moral and ethical issues, and leadership in athletics. Students can also complete an optional capstone project with their faculty advisor, exploring an athletics-related question or problem of their choice.
