

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AT-A-GLANCE

55

Best Graduate Education Programs in the Nation, U.S. News & World Report

1
FIRST

Home to the University of California's first family autism resource center — SEARCH (Support-Education-Advocacy-Resources-Community), and the only school psychology doctoral program in Southern California accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA)

DEGREES

Degrees and Credentials:

Bachelor of Arts
Master of Arts
Master of Education
Master of Education + Teaching Credential
Master of Education + Education Specialist Credential
Single Subject, Multiple Subject, or Education Specialist Credential
Doctor of Philosophy

Ph.D. Areas of Specialization

Education Policy Analysis and Leadership
Education, Society, and Culture
Educational Psychology
Higher Education Administration and Policy
School Psychology
Special Education

STUDENTS

984 2021-22 Student Enrollment

613 Undergraduate Majors

95 Undergraduate Minors

195 M.A./M.Ed./ Credentials

81 Ph.D.

87%

of all SOE students receive financial assistance in the form of grants, scholarships, and fellowships

94% of doctoral students receive multiyear fellowships

FACULTY

Faculty include renowned experts and top researchers in areas of special education and autism, critical race theory, teachers of Color, school reform, athletics, reading interventions, STEM learning, and more

Most diverse Education faculty in the UC System,

UCOP Info Center, Oct. 2020

6

Recipients of the American Educational Research Association (AERA) awards

$21+

million Grant money awarded to faculty in the last five years

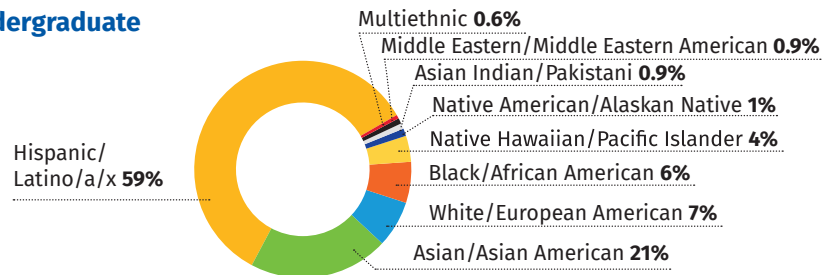

External funding from the Institute of Education Sciences, McCormick Foundation, National Science Foundation, and Spencer Foundation in 2020-21

STUDENT ETHNICITY (2021-2022)

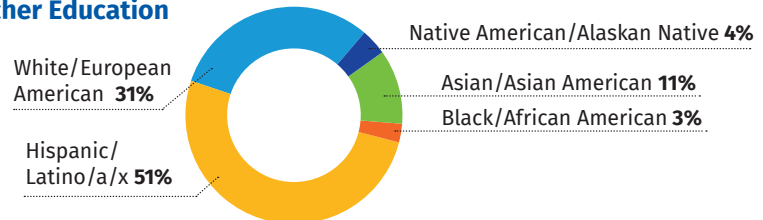

Graduate

Undergraduate

Teacher Education

(951) 827-4633
education.ucr.edu

/ucrsoe

UG RIVERSIDE
School of Education